FOR BAPTIST UNION.

Rev. Dr. Tupper Advocates a Closer Junction of Forces. (Baltimore Sun.)

At the Seventh Baptist church on Sun day Rev. Dr. H. Allen Tupper spoke of Baptist anniversaries at Saratoga Springs, which he addressed last week or nion of Forces Between North

"Not since fifty years has there existed a stronger disposition among the Baptist brotherhood of America to know each brotherhood of America to know each other bitter, to appreciate eac. aner more generously, to love each other more cordially, and to work with each other more unselfishly than just at this time. Hereafter the man will wield little influence in our councils who insists upon filling his gun with powder burned thirty years ago, and who aims at targets only set up in the narrowly-fenced field of a prejudiced brain and ungenerous heart. Rev. Dr. Thames here delivered a short but heautiful address to the graduates, which was followed by the awarding of medals as follows: The president's medal to the scholar attaining the highest and proposed by the awarding of solves. mission there must be a closer union of hearts, heads, and hands in a common conflict for the destruction of error and the establishment of truth. The mighty Young People's movement and the de-cision to co-operate in the work among the colored people of the South are hope-ful signs in the sky." (What say southern Baptist brothers?)

A COLD-BLOODED MURDER.

The Murderer Commits Suicide After Two Unsuccessful Attempts.

BETHLEHEM, PA., June 4.—Early this morning Jacob Lucky shot and killed his neighbor, John Mulock, and after two other attempts at suicide hanged himself from the limb of a tree, ten feet from Mulock's dead body. The murder was a cold-blooded affair, and was premeditated, Lucky lying in ambush for Mulock and shooting him down as he returned from work.

Lucky was angered at Mulock a week ago, when his wife was found harbored by him. She had fied to Mulock's house for protection, and to escape from Lucky's cruel treatment. Lucky then swore to have vergeance against Mulock, and killed him this morning, their first meeting since the family feud. Both worked in the iron-mill.

Lucky leaves a wife and two children and Mulock a wife and three children. ter Two Unsuccessful Attempts.
